Exceptions are when necessary for safe operation or when traveling up-grade. Slowly moving vehicles are restricted to the extreme right lane of traffic.

you can end "menu monotony" with an electric home freezer!
JADED APPETITES, unfinished portions, unenthusiastic comments—surely, every housewife knows these symptoms of "menu monotony." Usually prevalent in late fall and winter, they are caused by the limited variety of fresh foods.
One fine cure is to have an electric home freezer in your house. Stocked with fresh foods bought when they're in season, it keeps them at the peak of goodness for serving any time during the year.
With an electric home freezer there's no "menu monotony", no lazy, laggard appetites, and no wishing for out-of-season delicacies. Not by a freezer-full! See your dealer now.

A HEROINE'S IDEAL

The name before me is that of a heroine. I can see her twinkling blue eyes, framed in a mosaic of lines in a parchment-like skin. Her hands were square, rough and strong; on the third finger of her left hand I saw a wide, dull, gold ring that was worn almost in two.

"My husband was a plain, sturdy and kindly man," she explained in a clear, out-of-doors voice. "I was sixteen when we left Australia for America on a square rigged sailing ship. Terrible storms ripped our sails and ruined our food. My baby died, starved; we too were starving. Our ship crashed into a coral island where I traded my baby's clothes for coconuts. Then—" her voice trailed off into memories. Slowly, she raised her head, her eyes met mine as she added, "I want a funeral like him, plain and sturdy."

Funeral arrangements are inalienable parts of ourselves. Would you like to discuss, now, what must be discussed sometime. Call Stone & Myers Mortuary, Torrance 195, let us explain Funeral Insurance. It is inexpensive, yet pays a necessary bill, when you are least able to pay it.
